Application Instructions

Please TYPE your response if possible. The applicant is responsible for assuring the timely arrival of all materials.

NO application is considered until ALL necessary papers have been received.

1. Please enclose with this application form the fee of $30 U.S.A. (nonrefundable).
2. Request that the appropriate person or institution send to the Office of Admissions:
 - a. An official transcript of all work done at each college, university, and seminary in which you have studied for academic credit. Please send official copies of your academic records.
 - b. A report, on the enclosed form, of your academic standing at the institution where you are currently enrolled or which you most recently attended.
3. Provide three letters of reference on the enclosed forms. References should deal with the following elements:
 - a. your commitment to Christ and desire and abilities for service in the church
 - b. your leadership ability, maturity, and facility in interpersonal and group relationships
 - c. your academic ability and intellectual enthusiasm, curiosity, and perceptiveness
4. A five to seven page writing sample that addresses:
 - a. How you became a Christian and how your faith has developed, including two or three persons or events which shaped your life
 - b. The development of your sense of call to ministry and why you wish to pursue seminary studies
 - c. What you look forward to studying, and what kind of service you hope to enter after seminary
 - d. Your abilities/gifts for service to the church, and areas in which you perceive the need for growth
5. Sign and date the Doctrinal Acknowledgment
6. A phone interview is required for admission. Please call the admissions office to make arrangements.
